

HAROLD SANDITEN

THOUGHTS 'ROUND MIDNIGHT

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND! 19, 20 & 21 OCTOBER

Following sell-out shows in London, New York, Chicago, Toronto, Los Angeles, San Diego and Palm Springs, Harold Sanditen returns to The Pheasantry with THOUGHTS 'ROUND MIDNIGHT. Harold's comic and soulful interpretations explore those innermost thoughts we can all fall into late at night – loneliness, fantasies, jealousy, lost opportunities, and even revenge – using the words and music of John Lennon and Paul McCartney, Billie Holiday, Thelonious Monk, Jay Leonhart, Antonio Carlos Jobim, John Bucchino, Dorothy Fields, Bob Dylan and Stephen Sondheim, to name a few. This is another sensational evening from this exciting performer.

“Harold Sanditen’s show can’t help but please...his choices are intelligent and every song tells a story...well worth your time.”

—Ruth Leon, Playbill

“An artist with a genuine talent that promises much for the future...very satisfying entertainment.”

—Michael Darvell, Classical Source

“In great cabaret, there is a certain thing that happens when a singer and a song, AND their patter is perfectly matched. And a better match than Harold Sanditen, his music, his vocals and his elegant panache, would be hard to find anywhere.”

—Michael Sterling, LA Talk Radio

DIRECTOR: LISA FORRELL

MUSICAL DIRECTOR: MICHAEL ROULSTON

BASS: DAVE OLNEY

WOODWINDS: BOB SYDOR

19, 20 & 21 OCTOBER 2011

SHOW 8.30 PM

(DINNER FROM 7PM)

TICKETS £17.50

THE PHEASANTRY

152 KING'S ROAD

LONDON SW3 4UT

BOOKINGS:

08456 027 017 (option 8)

or online: TICKETS MAP

MORE INFO: WWW.HAROLDSANDITEN.COM

