

SAVOYPR

For Immediate Release

Jan. 29, 2020

Press Contact: Betsyann Faiella at SavoyPR / bafaiella@savoypr.com

I Got Rhythms* Starring Harold Sanditen: A Benefit for Cure Alzheimer's Fund Oklahoma Jazz Hall of Fame, May 3rd, 2020

New York - Grab your maracas and bongos! Harold Sanditen is back at the Oklahoma Jazz Hall of Fame with a brand new show on May 3rd, and this time with a benefit performance of his show, I Got Rhythms, for the Cure Alzheimer's Fund. Since his last appearance, Harold Sanditen, a Tulsa native, UK Resident and charismatic host of London's hottest Open Mic night (now in its 8th year at the infamous Crazy Coqs/Live at Zedel) has been performing across the globe, amassing new audiences and absorbing new musical expressions: a smattering of country and western from his native Oklahoma, the romantic wheeze of a Parisian concertina, the rhythmic abandon of a bouzouki on a beach in Mykonos, and the sexy sway of a Brazilian samba. In Sanditen's inimitable style, you'll hear each song in a new light, with exceptional and unique arrangements. This highly rhythmic celebration of life guarantees irresistible toe-tapping fun. Harold will be joined on stage by Music Director, Michael Roulston; Bassist, Jordan Hehl; and on drums, Jonathan "Kitch" Kitching. I Got Rhythms is directed by Barry Kleinbort. Please purchase your tickets at: bit.ly/TulsaGotRhythms or call The Jewish Federation at: 918 935 3665.

"A better match than Harold Sanditen, his vocals and his elegant panache, would be hard to find anywhere." -LA Talk Radio

"Harold is having such a good time that he makes every show a 'mahvellous party'... sophisticated and intelligent." – Playbill

The benefit concert and celebration of life honors Harold's mother, Jean Sanditen. Along with her husband, Wilfred, who still resides in Tulsa, Jean Sanditen was an active member of the Tulsa cultural community. The Sanditens were honored in 2012 at the Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art. Jean Sanditen passed away from Alzheimer's Disease in 2018.

Harold Sanditen says for him, it's simple, "This is a disease that can affect anyone. It's not hereditary, and it's the only major cause of death that's on the rise. It's crucial to find the research money to find a cure."

CureAlz Research Leadership Group of thirty-one world-class scientists at institutions across the globe have directed nearly $100 million to Alzheimer's research. 100% of every donation CureAlz receives goes directly to research, as the Board of Directors covers all overhead expenses. The fund has an excellent rating on Charity Navigator. Please note that CureAlz is covering all administrative costs and Harold Sanditen is covering all production costs, so 100% of the ticket price goes to the Cure Alzheimer's Fund.

Many thanks to the Jewish Federation for their immeasurable assistance with marketing and administration, and to the OK Jazz Hall for providing a generous discount on the venue and services.

DETAILS:

What and Who: I Got Rhythms* Starring Harold Sanditen: A Benefit for Cure Alzheimer's

Where: OK Jazz Hall of Fame, 5 South Boston, Tulsa, OK 74103

Date and Time: Sunday, May 3, 2020 at 3:00pm.

Ticket link: bit.ly/TulsaGotRhythms

Ticket prices: $25 to $200

More info: 918 935 3665 (FYI – that's a number at the Jewish Federation)

Press Representative for Harold Sanditen: Betsyann Faiella at SavoyPR/ Call: 310.283.2415 or email: bafaiella@savoypr.com

###